

DEVELOPING AND HONORING SKILLS FOR GOD'S GLORY

1. Recognize Your God-Given Gifts

Understand that every skill or talent you have is a gift from God meant to be used for His glory (1 Peter 4:10).

2. Seek God's Guidance

Pray for wisdom to identify and develop the skills that align with your purpose and calling (James 1:5).

3. Commit Your Skills to God

Dedicate your talents and abilities to God, seeking to serve Him in whatever you do (Colossians 3:23-24).

4. Invest in Continuous Learning

Be proactive in improving your skills through education, practice, and mentorship (Proverbs 22:29).

5. Be Humble and Teachable

Stay open to correction and advice from others to grow in wisdom and proficiency (Proverbs 9:9).

6. Serve Others with Your Skills

Use your abilities to bless others and make a positive impact in your community (Galatians 5:13).

7. Don't Despise Small Beginnings

Start where you are, trusting that God can grow your skills and multiply your efforts over time (Zechariah 4:10).

8. Collaborate with Others

Work alongside others, valuing teamwork and the diverse talents God has placed in His people (1 Corinthians 12:4-7).

9. Stay Faithful in Practice

Develop discipline and perseverance as you work to refine your skills, knowing that diligence honors God (Proverbs 10:4).

10. Use Skills for Kingdom Impact

Focus on using your talents to advance God's Kingdom, whether through your profession, ministry, or personal life (Matthew 25:14-30).
